

1 Find reliable contrast signs

On many fixed windows, SCI compares the curve with an endpoint chord. The signs are calibrated together to account for noise.

2 Rule out one side

3 Keep the surviving locations

Intersect the sign-based constraints and take the closure.

