

1 Find reliable local shape

On many fixed windows, SCI compares the curve with an endpoint chord. The signs are calibrated together to account for noise.

2 Rule out one side

3 Keep what the data cannot rule out

Intersect the surviving locations from every certified window.

